Bringing it all together

Synopsis

This series of Bible studies were put together in this order so that precept would build on precept, line upon line, from here a little and there a little. There are foundational principles that I've come to understand from my study of Bible prophecy that can change the whole trajectory of where you end up in the interpretation of scripture. To that end, my goal has been to let scripture interpret scripture and take God at His Word, adjusting my understanding as needed to align with what He says. I know I still have a lot of growth in this, but I feel the information that has led to here has a strong foundation upon which to build understanding so we are not in darkness about what God is about to do.

The first chart that will be reviewed grew from just organizing the exact-day prophecies of Daniel and John to incorporating the moedim as I began to understand how they played into the reason for 3½ years, 42 months, and 1,260 days.

The 70th Week Framework and Moedim Years chart developed out of curiosity as to how often the 1,260 days would land on significant moedim both before and after the central point of Yom Kippur, which seemed to be the starting point for God's wrath at some point in the future. To my surprise, looking at a small subset of years, it fell within a day of firstfruits 60% of the time and within several days 86% of the time. What is interesting is that just having a framework of exact-day prophecies allows one to plug in the dates and see how things line up. In this 15 year span of time looking at Yom Kippur, only 20% of the time did everything line up on significant days for both the start of the week and the end of the week plus 45 days. All of this is due to the nature of a lunar religious calendar shifting across the solar agricultural calendar to which the two are tied. This seemed a significant piece of information to share in relation to the framework chart above from which it was derived.

Details

- Introduction
  - We have gone through the topical definitions of prophesied events according to scripture and explained the framework of the 70th week of Daniel according to scripture. Now it is time to more fully put all of this information together into a single cohesive chart of the 70th week and some peripheral events for context.
  - Overview Timeline
    - As the entire focus is on the chart in greater detail, this overview timeline will not be required.
- Moedim Years Chart
  - 2030 and 2033 are only years that seem to match the 3.5 (1,260 days) from the spring feasts to the fall feasts and back to the spring feasts at the end of the seven years.
- Interesting Correlations as viewed from Jerusalem

- Day of the Lord (Middle of the week)
  - 1 Tishri - Saturday, September 28, 2030 (Yom Teruah/Rosh Hashanah)
    - On 9/27/30 at 12:55 pm, the moon is officially a full moon. Sunset is just after 6 pm officially beginning the next day.
    - Traditionally when 2 witnesses see the first sliver of light on the moon, therefore said to be an unknown day and hour.
    - Whether it would be considered before 12:55 and 6 pm to be the first light after a new moon is something an expert would have to decide.
    - The next time the moon is first visible from Jerusalem is around 7:30 am on 9/28/2030.
    - Mark 13:32-37 - "But of that day and [that] hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. [For the Son of man is] as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch."
    - Feast of Trumpets concluding with the tekiah gedolah (long, last trumpet blast)
  - 3 Tishri - Monday, September 30, 2030 (Fast of Gedalia)
    - Early hours of 3rd, Mars (Roman mythology god of war) passes closest to Regulus (king star) in Leo (lion)
    - Sun enters into Virgo constellation
  - 8 Tishri - Saturday, October 5, 2030 (Shabbat Shuvah)
    - Sabbath of return, weekly Sabbath between Yom Teruah and Yom Kippur.
    - Hosea 14 is read. - Israel's future blessing "I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him."
    - See also Hosea 2:14-23 - Restoration of Israel "behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her."
  - 14 Tishri - Friday, October 11, 2030 (Sukkot)
    - Mercury closest to the sun along with Venus following shortly after
  - 21 Tishri - Friday, October 18, 2030 (last day Sukkot before weekly/high Sabbath)
    - Venus closest to the sun
- Conclusion

May God continue to bless you as you remain in Him.
