The 10 horns are 10 kings that received no kingdom yet, but receive power as kings for 1 hour with the beast. These 10 have one mind and give their power and strength to the beast. They will make war with the Lamb who will overcome them. The 10 horns will hate the whore and make her desolate and naked and will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. God has put it in their hearts to fulfill His will and give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. The woman is that great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.
Historical Record	925 BC Pharaoh Shechonk I came against Jerusalem and took treasures of the temple and the king's house. 1 Kings 14:25-27 | 2 Chronicles 12:1-8	734-715 BC Northern kingdom taken into captivity. 1 Chronicles 5:25-26 | 2 Kings 15:27-29 | 2 Kings 17:1-6 | 2 Kings 18:11-12 701 BC Assyrian ruler Sennacherib lays siege to Jerusalem, but it was not taken.	586 BC Nebuchadnezzar II's Babylonian forces take Israel captive and destroy Jerusalem. Jeremiah 25:1-11	539 BC Persian Cyrus the Great conquers Babylonian Empire & Jerusalem 1884-466 BC Ezra 4 and king in book of Esther)	332 BC Alexander the Great conquers Judea and Jerusalem	63 BC Roman General Pompey captures Jerusalem	Future 4 partitions of global governance of which 1 is described as having 10 kings. At some point in the transition from this 7th head to the 8th head, 3 of those 10 kings will be plucked up/fall before a little horn that comes up out of the 10. He will take control of all kingdoms.	Mystery Babylon: Woman Rides the Scarlet Beast
Comments	The woman represents Jerusalem, where the blood of all the prophets was spilled and it sits on God's holy mountain. There are 7 kings and the fact that we are given temporal context by the interpretation that 5 are fallen, 1 is, and 1 is not yet come tells us these are a series of historical kingdoms lead by these kings which are related to Jerusalem specifically. Throughout history then, it would seem these are the kingdoms and their kings, besides Israel, who had control over the mountain on which Jerusalem would sit.						This future king and kingdom, the 7th head, has an interesting divergence that would seem to harmonize with Daniel 7's account of the fourth kingdom. In Daniel's account, there are 4 contemporaneous kingdoms in the end and the 4th kingdom is tied to the 10 horns. It is out of those 10 horns that the little horn representing the man of sin comes up from the 3 plucked horns. So indeed the antichrist's kingdom would be the 8th head, but of the 7 before it. The woman riding the beast would then represent Jerusalem, mystery Babylon and mother of harlots. Fornication in the Old Testament is related to Israel going after other gods over the One true God they married at Sinai. The idea of the nations of the world committing fornication with her implies their capitulation in worshipping the antichrist during his reign

Daniel 2: Babylon to the Messianic Kingdom	Egypt	Assyria	Babylon	Medo-Persia	Greece	Rome	Final Kingdom	Antichrist Kingdom	Messianic Kingdom
Vision			Daniel 2:32 Head of Fine Gold.	Daniel 2:32 Breast and arms silver.	Daniel 2:32 belly and thighs brass.	Daniel 2:33 legs of iron.	Daniel 2:33-35 feet part iron/part clay which stone cut without hands will break in pieces.		Daniel 2:35 Stone that destroyed last kingdom will become a great mountain that fills the whole earth.
Interpretation			Daniel 2:37-38 Nebuchadnezzar is the head of gold, to whom God has given a kingdom, power, strength and glory.	Daniel 2:39 Another inferior kingdom to Nebuchadnezzar's.	Daniel 2:39 Third kingdom of brass that will rule over all the earth.	Daniel 2:40 Fourth kingdom will be strong as iron such that it breaks in pieces and subdues all things and bruise.	Daniel 2:41-43 This kingdom will be divided, but it will have the strength of iron, yet it will be partly strong and partly weak. The seed of men will mingle, yet not cleave to one another.		Daniel 2:44-45 In the days of these kings, God will setup a kingdom that will never be destroyed, but it will break all these kingdoms and stand forever.
Historical Record			Regarded as the Babylonian Empires greatest king.	Babylon fell to the Achaemenid Empire under Cyrus the Great in 539 BC.	Alexander the Great conquered the Middle East and died in Babylon. His kingdom was split into 4 amid much division and slowly weakened.	Under various emperors, Rome was very strong and conquered much of Europe and the Middle East. Rome eventually split into the Western and Eastern legs of the empire.	History is replete with the rise and fall of kingdoms, but throughout time the invluences of Greece and Rome on politics continued to evolve and strong governments governing many people grew and disappeared evolving into the political climate of today. War and conflict continued to be a mainstay of kingdoms of the earth as they are today, but without the kind of kings or dynastic empires of old. Now it's politics of the people and democracy. While governments have strong control, they have weakened in their dominations over time leading to a more solidified map of the world that changes less and less nationally. However, as we near the end global governance grows, the cooperation of the various nations, driven by political agendas both financial and climate, slowly solidifying power to the ultimate end of being able to take hold of that power and once again have a powerful and global king with the power and authority to control the world.

Daniel 8: Abomination of Desolation Foreshadowed	Egypt	Assyria	Babylon	Medo-Persia	Greece	Rome	Final Kingdom	Antichrist Kingdom	Messianic Kingdom
Vision				Daniel 8:3-4 Ram with 2 tall horns, the latter higher than the first. Pushed west, north, and south and no beasts could stand before him or deliver out of his hand.	Daniel 8:5-8 He goat came from the west on the whole face of the earth without touching the ground and had a notable horn between its eyes. He ran into the ram in the fury of his power and smote him and there was no power left in the ram, he was cast to the ground and stamped on and none could deliver him. The goat waxed very great and when he was strong, was broken.	Daniel 8:8 When the great horn was broken, 4 notable horns came up to the 4 winds of heaven.	Daniel 8:9 Out of one of the 4 horns came a little one that became exceedingly great toward the south and east and toward the pleasant land. It waxed great even to the host of heaven and cast down some of the host of the stars and stamped on them. A host was given against the daily by reason of transgression and cast the truth to the ground and accomplished and prospered. How long concerning the vision of the daily and transgression of desolation? 2,300 days, then the sanctuary cleansed.
Interpretation				Daniel 8:20 The ram with two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.	Daniel 8:21 The rough goat is the king of Greece and the great horn between his eyes is the first king.	Daniel 8:22 That first king being broken, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.	Daniel 8:23-25 In the latter time of their kingdom, when transgressors are come full, a king of fierce countenance understanding dark sentances will stand. His power will be mighty, but not by his own power, and he shall destroy and prosper and destroy the mighty and the holy people. Through his policy he will be politically crafty and magnify himself in his heart and by peace destroy many. He will stand up against the prince of princes and be broken without hand.
Historical Record				Herodotus writes of the formation of the Medes as Deiceos, Phraortes, Cyaxeres, and Astyages ruled and grew. In Astyages's rule, the Persians revolted again the Medes and Cyrus the Great defeated them and took the throne of the Medes and Persians. The Medes were at one point the superior ruling class, but Cyrus took control and grew stronger than the Medes were.	Alexander the Great was the first king of Greece, son of Philip of Macedon. He was one of the most successful military commanders in history, defeating the Medo-Persian Empire and assimilating it into the Greek Empire. Alexander suddenly died while in Babylon and the period following led to the division of the Macedonian Empire under 4 of Alexander's generals at the partition of Babylon.	The Kingdom of Macedonia's succession was led by Perdiccas who was, for a short time, made regent of the empire. Philip III Arrhidaeus was named co-ruler with Alexander IV, child of Alexander III and his wife Roxana. Philip III had diminished mental capacity and so Olympias, Alexander's mother, went through a series of regents. Cassander later had Alexander IV murdered and took over power.	Ptolemaic Kingdom Founded by Alexander's general Ptolemy I Soter. Ruled by the Ptolemaic dynasty until the death of Cleopatra VII in 30 BC.	Kingdom of Lysimachus was ruled by Lysimachus, a general of Alexander, but died in 281 BC. It lasted around 150 years before being absorbed into the Roman Empire around 133-129 BC.	Seleucid Empire founded in 312 BC by general Seleucus I Nicator and was eventually overthrown in 63 BC by the Roman general Pompey.	Antiochus Epiphanes IV ruled the Seleucid Empire from 175-164 BC when he died. He was not supposed to take the throne, but Seleucus's son Demetrius I was captive in Rome and he declared himself king and rallied enough of the Greek ruling class to support him. In 167 BC, he forbade Jewish practices and persecuted devout Jews. Diodorus wrote that he "sacrificed a great swine at the image of Moses, and at the altar of God that stood in the outward court, and sprinkled them with the blood of the sacrifice...that the books by which they were taught to hate all other nations be sprinkled with the broth made of the swine's flesh...and he put out the lamp that burns continually in the temple and forced the high priest and other Jews to eat swine's flesh."] Diodorus 34:1(4) 2 Maccabees 9:5-9 describes his death from an incurable illness attributed to God's justice.
Comments				The history lines up pretty well here.	Again, the history lines up very well.	The death of Alexander the Great brought a lot of division in the young kingdom and none of them had his power and would be absorbed into the Roman Empire eventually.	This pretty confincingly describes Antiochus IV as a type of Antichrist and a vision of what the abomination of desolation involves. The interferance of the eternal covenant with Israel to keep the daily sacrifice in purified temple. Stopping the daily, putting out the eternal flame, putting up an idol who is not God and demanding worship of it is an abomination that causes desolation and interferes with God's eternal covenant with Israel. Some have said Daniel was written after this happened due to it's description of history from the past. The Dead Sea Scrolls are dated from 300 BC to 70 AD and Scroll 4Q12 Daniel, 4Q113 Daniel, and 6Q7 PapDaniel all repeat the same story with the pieces there.

Daniel 9: 70 Weeks for Israel and Jerusalem	Egypt	Assyria	Babylon	Medo-Persia	Greece	Rome	Final Kingdom	Antichrist Kingdom	Messianic Kingdom
Vision				Daniel 9:1-25a Daniel petitions God for the fate of Israel after the 70 years captivity. Told from the command to restore and build Jerusalem to the Messiah the Prince will be 69 7s (483 years) and the street will be built again and the wall in troubled times.	Daniel 9:25 After 483 years Messiah is cut off, but not for himself. The people of the prince that shall come will destroy the city and sanctuary and until the end of the war desolations are determined.	Daniel 9:25 After 483 years Messiah is cut off, but not for himself. The people of the prince that shall come will destroy the city and sanctuary and until the end of the war desolations are determined.	Daniel 9:25 After 483 years Messiah is cut off, but not for himself. The people of the prince that shall come will destroy the city and sanctuary and until the end of the war desolations are determined.	Daniel 9:25 After 483 years Messiah is cut off, but not for himself. The people of the prince that shall come will destroy the city and sanctuary and until the end of the war desolations are determined.	Daniel 9:27a He will confirm a covenant for one week	Daniel 9:27b In the midst of the week he will cause sacrifice and oblation to cease and for the overspreading of abominations he will make desolate even until the consumation and that determined shall be poured out on the desolate

Historical Record				Cyrus is called by name and the Cyrus scroll speaks to the declaration of Jerusalem being built again		In 30 AD, Yeshua died on the cross and after three days was resurrected and appeared to many. He then ascended to heaven to the Father.
Comments				The second temple is built.	The second temple period lasts through this time in history. The time around 167 BC covers the time of the Seleucid king Antiochus IV Epiphanes, who performs the first abomination of desolation prior to the Roman rule over Jerusalem that lead to Messiah in 30 AD and the destruction of the second temple in 70 AD.	This was more than 483 years after the restoration of Jerusalem after the Babylonian captivity.	The first seal is described as the rider on the white horse with a bow conquering. The bow was also used as a token of a covenent in Genesis not to destroy the earth by a flood again. Could this represent the man of sin confirming the Mosaic covenant in the rebuilding of the temple and reinstitution of the daily sacrifice?	After defeating the enemies of Israel in the wars of the antichrist (Daniel 11:40-45), the man of sin plants his tents in Jerusalem and declares himself god in the rebuilt temple, stopping the daily sacrifice and placing himself as an idol to be worshipped in the temple of God.

Daniel 11-12: Persia to Antiochus To Antichrist	Egypt	Assyria	Babylon	Medo-Persia	Greece	Rome	Final Kingdom	Antichrist Kingdom	Messianic Kingdom
Vision				Daniel 11:2 The 4th king in Persia after Cyrus the Great will be far richer than any and by his strength through riches he will stir up all against the realm of Grecia.	Daniel 11:3 A mighty king will stand up that will rule with great dominion and do according to his will.	Daniel 11:4-20 When he stands up, the kingdom will be broken and divided toward the 4 winds of heaven. Not to his posterity or according to his dominion which he ruled. His kingdom will be plucked up for others besides those.	Daniel 11:21-35 A vile person will stand to whom they will not give the honor of the kingdom, but he will come in peaceably and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. Like a flood he will overflow like a flood and break also the prince of the covenant. After a league is made with him, he will work deceitfully and come up and become strong with a small people. He will come up peaceably on the fattest places of the province and do what his fathers and grandfathers did not, scattering among them prey, spoil and riches and plan his strategies against the strongholds for a time. He will go against the king of the south and defeat him because of the planning and many will be slain. Both kings will do mischief and lie, but not prosper, the end will be at the appointed time. King of the north will return to his land with great riches. He will go and have indigestion against the holy covenant and plan with those who have forsaken it. He will pollute the sanctuary and take away the daily and place the abomination that makes desolate. He will corrupt by flatteries, but the people who know God will be strong. They will fall by the sword, flame, captivity and spoil many days. Those that fall will be helped, but many will cleave to them with flatteries. Some with understanding will fall to try them and make them white even to the time of the end, because it is yet for a time appointed.	Daniel 11:36-12:1 The king will do according to his will and exalt himself above every god and speak great things against the God of gods and prosper until the indignation is accomplished. He won't regard the god of his fathers, desire of women, or any god. He will magnify himself above all and honor a god of forces with gold, silver, precious stones. He will cause them to rule over many and divide the land for gain. At the time of the end the king of the south will push at him and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind and he will take over countries except Edom, Moab, chief of children of Ammon. Egypt will not escape and Libyans and Ethiopians will be at his step. Tidings out of east and north will trouble him and he will destroy and take away many. He will plant his tabernacles between the seas in the glorious holy mountain and come to his end and none shall help him. At that time Michael will stand and unparalleled tribulation will happen. Those written in the book will be delivered from it. From the time the daily is taken away will be 1,290 days. Blessed is he that waits to the 1,335 days.	Daniel 12:2-3 Many that sleep in the earth will awake, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those that are wise will shine like the brightness of the firmament and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever.

Historical Record				Xerxes I Ahasuerus (486-465 BC) was the fourth Persian king after Cyrus, who married a Jew named Esther, and attempted to conquer Greece in 480 BC but failed to conquer.	Alexander the Great was the first king of Greece, son of Philip of Macedon. He was one of the most successful military commanders in history, defeating the Medo-Persian Empire and assimilating it into the Greek Empire. Alexander suddenly died while in Babylon and the period following led to the division of the Macedonian Empire under 4 of Alexander's generals at the partition of Babylon.	With Alexander's premature death in 323 BC, the Grecian Empire was broken into four separate divisions under the control of four former generals who became kings sixteen years later, after considerable political wrangling and the murder of all of Alexander's heirs. Comments					Daniel 11:5-35 is like a detailed walk through the history of the divided Grecian kingdom after Alexander to the point in time of Antiochus Epiphanes IV

Daniel 7: Rise of the Antichrist Kingdom	Egypt	Assyria	Babylon	Medo-Persia	Greece	Rome	Final Kingdom				Antichrist Kingdom	Messianic Kingdom
							First, Second, & Third Kingdoms			Fourth Kingdom with 10 Kings from which 1 will Rise Taking Out 3
Vision							Daniel 7:4 First beast like a lion w/ plucked eagle's wings lifted from the earth and made to stand like a man and a man's heart given to it.	Daniel 7:5 Second beast like a bear raised on one side w/ 3 ribs in its mouth and between its teeth. Told to arise and devour much flesh.	Daniel 7:6 Third beast like a leopard with 4 heads and 4 wings on its back like a bird and dominion given to it.	Daniel 7:7 Fourth beast, dreadful and terrible with 10 horns and great iron teeth that devoured and broke in pieces and stamped the residue with its feet. It was diverse from all the beasts that were before it. (before is used "in front of," "in presence of," or "with" Not in the sense of time or history.)	Daniel 7:8 1 little horn came up from among 3 of the 10 horns that he plucked by the roots. He has the eyes of a man and a mouth speaking great things.
Interpretation										Daniel 7:23-24 The fourth beast will be the fourth kingdom on the earth, diverse from all kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth and tread it down and break it in pieces. The 10 horns are 10 kings that will arise.	Daniel 7:19-22; 24-25 The little horn made war with the saints and prevailed against them until the Ancient of days came. This little horn will arise out of the 10 kings, diverse from them, and will subdue 3 of those kings. Comments							These 4 kingdoms appear to be contemporary because of Daniel 7:12. When Yeshua returns, the 3 beasts will have their lives prolonged for a season and time whereas the 4th kingdom will be destroyed with its leader, the little horn, man of sin, beast, antichrist. The fourth kingdom will be diverse from all kingdoms, which I think speaks to the idea of peculiar people with peculiar customs given by God to them. No other nation will have an identity wrapped in ancient Hebrew culture with a sacrificial system.

Comments							Given that John's vision later in Revelation 17 states that the man of sin's kingdom is the 8th out of the 7, we can see Daniel's account in chapter 7 matches up with the final days kingdom of the antichrist because the whole world gives their power to him and the 4 kingdoms of Daniel 7 are described in Revelation 13 as one beast. Therefore, Revelation 13 is speaking of the final antichrist kingdom during his control after the abomination of desolation.

Comments										10 kings (from which 3 fell and 1 came up] Daniel 7:20,24) receive leadership role but no kingdom for an hour with the beast and they give their power to him because God put it in the 10 kings hearts to fulfill His will. After the bowls are poured out, God's will is fulfilled and the 10 kings will no longer give their power to the beast and will destroy Jerusalem.	Mystery Babylon sits on 7 mountains (spacial) which are 7 kings (temporal) representing control of Jerusalem through history. Jerusalem is where the blood of all the prophets was shed.
